A Message From WiBF's CEO

On behalf of Women in Banking and Finance, I am proud to announce our 2024 National Industry Awards celebration.

This event recognises the extraordinary accomplishments of individuals and organisations that are leading the way in advancing gender equality in our industry.

Our awards celebrate the talented professionals leading by example across Australia's banking and finance industry, as well as those organisations working to improve gender diversity across the sector.

This year, we are delighted to host the Awards luncheon at a new and exciting location, the Grand Ballroom at the ICC in Sydney. Anticipating a historic moment with this year's nominations, promising to mark our grandest celebration to date.

Thank you to all of our sponsors who continue to support us in 2024, and a warm welcome to those new sponsors joining us.

Sincerely,
Stephanie Girard CEO

About Our Awards September 5, 2024

This initiative applauds the remarkable individuals who are setting a great example in the Australian banking and finance industry, as well as those organisations who are striving to advance gender equality.

The WiBF 2024 National Industry Awards offers a platform to honour the accomplishments of individuals and organisations that have had a positive effect on gender equality in the banking and financial sector. It also gives finalists and winners the chance to build their personal brand and be seen as an expert in their field.

The values that WiBF stands for are mirrored in the Awards Program. These include taking meaningful steps towards gender diversity; focusing on results, action and innovation; seeing the business advantages of gender parity; and motivating professional growth, thought leadership and knowledge sharing to support women at all stages of their career.
